SUNDT EMPLOYEE-OWNER AMBER SIMONSON JOINS TEXAS DISTRICT

FORT WORTH, Texas (September 26, 2018) – Amber Simonson has joined the Texas District of the Building Group for Sundt Construction, Inc. She will be based out of the Fort Worth office and serve as the manager for a project in Denton, Texas.

“We are happy to have Amber transfer into our Fort Worth office,” said Eric Hedlund, Sundt’s Senior Vice President and Texas District Manager for the company’s Building Group. “Amber will bring considerable experience and expertise from her previous work on projects in California to our North Texas office.”

Simonson arrives in North Texas after four years working for the Building Group’s California District. She worked on higher education, government and commercial projects within the San Diego region during this time. Prior to coming to Sundt, Simonson worked for another contractor on transportation, healthcare and hospitality projects in Southern California.

A 13-year veteran of the construction industry, as project manager Simonson will be responsible for leading the entire jobsite team and meeting the project’s delivery goals.

Sundt has 50 years and nearly $2 billion of project work throughout Texas with offices in Fort Worth, Irving, San Antonio and El Paso.

About Sundt

Sundt Construction, Inc. (www.sundt.com) is one of the country’s largest and most respected general contractors. The 128-year-old firm specializes in transportation, industrial, building and concrete work and is known for its commitment to quality and innovative approach to construction services. Sundt has 11 offices throughout Arizona, California, Texas and Utah and is 100-percent owned by its approximately 2,000 employees. Sundt currently is ranked the 65th largest construction company in the United States by ENR, the industry’s principal trade magazine. The company is consistently ranked among the Best Places to Work by business publications in multiple cities, and it was named the nation's safest construction company by the Associated General Contractors of America twice in a decade – an honor no other contractor can claim. Sundt's charitable arm, the Sundt Foundation, recently crossed the $8.6 million mark in donations made to hundreds of nonprofit organizations across the country.
