SUNDT HIRES ADRIAN MIERA IN TEXAS

SAN ANTONIO (November 7, 2018) – Sundt Construction, Inc. (www.sundt.com) has added Adrian Miera to the company’s Building Group, Texas District.

Based out of the San Antonio office, Miera will serve as a superintendent on the construction of the Midwestern State University Health Sciences & Human Sciences Building project in Wichita Falls, Texas. The 84,000-square-foot building includes classrooms, laboratories, offices and support space.

“We’re happy to add Adrian to our Texas team,” said Eric Hedlund, Senior Vice President and Texas District Manager for Sundt’s Building Group. “He brings deep experience in healthcare construction and will be a big help to us on current and future projects in the state.”

A San Antonio native, Miera’s experience includes overseeing multi-phase healthcare construction projects including the coordination of scheduling and managing subcontractors and personnel.

Sundt has 50 years and nearly $3 billion of project work throughout Texas with offices in San Antonio, Fort Worth, Irving and El Paso. The company is currently working on the University of North Texas Biomedical Engineering Addition in Denton and expects to break ground on two additional projects later this fall and next winter in North Texas.
