SUNDT PLACES DOME IN DENTON

DENTON, Texas (August 7, 2019) – Sundt Construction, Inc. (www.sundt.com) recently placed a dome at the top of the Denton County Administration Complex Phase III, located near the Elections Office and County Health Department on South Loop 288.

Phase III involves new construction of a four-story facility that will house a new county commissioners court with a judge and commissioner’s suite and support services. Additionally, the county justice of the peace court, constable and human resources departments will soon be in the facility.

The process featured the placement of a dome that peaks at 207 feet. The dome was set in place via crane. “We’re proud to work as a team on Denton’s new courthouse building,” said Sundt’s Project Manager Amber Simonson. “This project continues to strengthen our chemistry and develop our abilities, as each person rises to new challenges.”

Phase III also includes site development work on over 12 acres with associated parking, a community park, and water quality and utility improvements. HDR Architecture is the architect for the project, and the new facility is expected to be complete in 2020.

Sundt has 50 years and nearly $3 billion of project work throughout Texas, with offices in Fort Worth, Irving, San Antonio and El Paso. The company recently completed the University of North Texas Biomedical Engineering Addition in Denton and is working on the Southeast Recreation Center in Arlington, Texas.
